

NAPHA Junior Scholarship

1. Allow junior members of all ages participate in the Junior Scholarship Program. Juniors of all ages can participate by showing, trail riding, and spending time with their Peruvian Horse. Over the time span of the Junior's membership points will be accumulated.
 - A. Points can be accumulated through show participation which is automatically tracked by www.horseudbook.com, the online show program for NAPHA shows.
 - a. At the end of each year the Junior Member prints their show hours from horseudbook.com with their current year's show participation and points. This process is repeated each year until the Junior Member is eligible for the NAPHA Scholarship Application. The scholarship committee will take into account the age of the applicant along with the year this new qualification was started.
 - B. Points can be accumulated through NAPHA Junior Horsemanship Program forms that are available on www.napha.net.
 - a. Yearly until the Junior Member is eligible for the NAPHA Scholarship, the junior can log hours spent with their Peruvian Horse on the Horsemanship log. The scholarship committee will take into account the age of the applicant along with the year this new qualification was started.
 - C. Junior Scholarship Applications are to be postmarked by July 31.
2. As previously approved by the Board of Directors when the Scholarship applications are submitted to the Scholarship Committee the names of the applicants will be removed and replaced with numbers.
3. Each Scholarship Committee member will review the categories of each application and rate each category on a scale of 0-5.

Current Categories:

Autobiographical Essay
Copy of High School Transcript
Non-School Extracurricular Activity List
School Extracurricular Activity List
Activities with Peruvian Horses
Recommendation for Teacher or Riding Instructor

New Categories:

NAPHA End of Year High Point 6-17
NAPHA Horsemanship Program Participant 6-17
Overall Deserving Recipient of Scholarship

4. The Junior Scholarship Committee recommends more publication of the Junior Scholarship Winner, i.e. in the National Show Program, NAPHA Web Site, and recognition per the announcer during the National Show. The Scholarship Committee believes the more recognition the Scholarship winner receives the more inspiration younger participants will have.
5. The Scholarship Committee suggest prize sponsored by outside donor @ no expense to NAPHA and other recognition of the scholarship recipient from outside publications through the recommendation of the committee.
6. JUNIORS page on the NAPHA web site. Juniors' page would consist of Scholarship Application, Horsemanship Forms, Year End High Point Awards, Show Rules pertaining to juniors, etc.

Athena Goumas, Chair Junior Scholarship Committee